

Masters Degrees (Level 9)

TE WHARE WĀNANGA O
AWANUIĀRANGI

Masters Degrees

(Level 9)

Scan to view the most up-to-date information about this programme on our website

We offer two masters degrees: Master of Indigenous Studies and Master of Māori Studies. Students complete a minimum of four papers (full-time or part time) and a dissertation or thesis where students are often completing research on a topic close to their hearts.

Dates

S1: 05 Feb 2024 - 24 Jun 2024

S2: 08 Jul 2024 - 25 Nov 2024

Location

Whakatāne, Tāmaki Makaurau,
Tai Tokerau

Duration

40 weeks per year, 20 weeks per semester

Fees

Paper: $1608 each.

Research project: $1602 each.

Dissertation: $3208 per year.

Thesis: $3898.00 per year.

(Fees are updated annually)

Choose your own path

There are 8 research fields within the two masters' degrees, enabling students to study and research: Māori Studies, Environment, Māori Performing Arts, Business, Health, Creative Arts, Indigenous Studies and Education.

TE WHARE WĀNANGA O
AWANUIĀRANGĪ

wananga.ac.nz
0508 92 62 64
  