

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Master of Māori Studies

Level 9

Learning that connects

wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Master of Māori Studies

The Master of Māori Studies at Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi is a postgraduate programme for those who wish to deepen their expertise in te ao Māori, mātauranga Māori, and indigenous methodologies. Our courses examine Māori worldviews, language, tikanga and decolonising practice. The programme supports critical inquiry, thought leadership and community-centred research that makes a difference for communities, whānau, hapū and iwi.

Dates

See our website
for details

Location

Noho are delivered in Whakatāne

Duration

40 weeks per year
20 weeks per semester

Fees

2026 Fees: $1800
(per paper or research project),
$3604 (dissertation),
$4379 (thesis).

What you'll learn:

Māori and Indigenous research methods; te reo Māori and tikanga Māori cultural practice; kaupapa Māori education; Māori and indigenous development; cultural sustainability; advanced study of mātauranga Māori and indigenous knowledge; independent research for a thesis, dissertation or special project.

Disclaimer: The information on this flyer is for general purposes and may be subject to change without notice. Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi strives for accuracy but reserves the right to alter content at anytime.

wananga.ac.nz