

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Philosophy

Level 10

Learning that connects

wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Philosophy (Level 10)

Doctoral Degrees are the highest supervised degree offered. The PhD is awarded for a thesis that demonstrates a candidate's ability to carry out independent research and analysis at an advanced level of study in Education, Indigenous Studies, Environmental Studies or Māori Studies.

Dates

Intake 1: 3 Feb 2025
to 19 Dec 2025,
Intake 2: 1 Jul 2025 to 30 Jun 2026

Location

Nationally &
Internationally .
Noho Locations: *see website for details

Duration

Minimum of three years full-time or up to six years part-time

Fees

2025 Fees, Domestic:
$6764.00 per enrolled
year, International:
USD18,000.00

Commitment

The PhD requires a considerable time commitment in addition to the noho (15-30 hours per week), particularly if studying full-time, which will be discussed with your supervisor.

Scan to view the most up-to-date information about this programme
on our website.