

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Indigenous Development and Advancement

Learning that connects

wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Indigenous Development and Advancement (IDA)

Grounded in Indigenous methodologies, this doctoral degree programme supports applied research that contributes to the development and empowerment of indigenous communities across local, national, and international contexts. It offers a culturally responsive pathway to academic excellence and real-world transformation.

Dates

See our website for details

Location

National and International (see website for details)

Duration

4 years

Fees

2026 Fees: $7170

What you'll do:

Conduct original research in indigenous development and advancement ; apply indigenous and kaupapa Māori research methodologies; collaborate with indigenous communities and organisations; produce a doctoral thesis that contributes to global indigenous scholarship and influences policy, practice, and innovation through culturally grounded research.

Disclaimer: The information on this flyer is for general purposes and may be subject to change without notice. Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi strives for accuracy but reserves the right to alter content at anytime.

wananga.ac.nz