

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Philosophy

Learning that connects

wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Doctor of Philosophy

This PhD qualification is designed for researchers who are committed to producing transformative research with lasting impact for whānau, hapū, iwi, and wider communities. Supervised by leading scholars, candidates will develop an original thesis that advances indigenous theory, practice, or policy.

Dates

See our website for details

Location

National and International (see website for details)

Duration

Mininum of 3 years full-time or up to 6 years
part-time

Fees

2026 Fees: $7170

What you'll do in the Doctor of Philosophy (PhD):

Research can be carried out in the fields of education, Indigenous studies, environmental studies, Māori studies and a range of creative studies. The thesis is examined and defended orally before an examination committee.

Disclaimer: The information on this flyer is for general purposes and may be subject to change without notice. Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi strives for accuracy but reserves the right to alter content at anytime.

wananga.ac.nz