

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Professional Doctorate Degrees

Level 10

Learning that connects

wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Professional Doctorate Degrees

Doctor of Māori Development and Advancement (MDA) and Doctor of Indigenous Development and Advancement (IDA) are doctoral degrees designed for students in professional areas. These degrees consider the working experiences of students and encourage them to consider how their research can contribute to their community or indigenous organisations.

Dates

Intake 1: 03 Feb to 30 Jun 2025
Intake 2: 01 Jul to 19 Dec 2025
Thesis intake 1: 03 Feb 2025
to 19 Dec 2025
Thesis intake 2: 01 Jul 2025 to 30 Jun 2026.

Location

Nationally and Internationally (see website for more information.)

Duration

4 years (2 years part-time taught papers + 2 years thesis)

Fees

Domestic: $6764.00 per enrolled year, International:
USD18,000.00
(note: fees are updated annually)

Choosing the right degree

- The MDA is primarily for those who are employed within Māori organisations, for example, working within an iwi or government context.
- The IDA is primarily for those who work in an indigenous context or have a responsibility for indigenous aspects within their employment, including international students.

Disclaimer: The information on this flyer is for general purposes and may be subject to change without notice. Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi strives for accuracy but reserves the right to alter content at anytime.

wananga.ac.nz