

Te Whare Wānanga
o Awanuiārangi

Master's Degrees

Level 9

Learning that connects
wananga.ac.nz

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi

Master's Degrees (Level 9)

We offer two master's degrees: Master of Indigenous Studies and Master of Māori Studies. Students complete a minimum of four papers (full-time or part time) and a dissertation or thesis where students are often completing research on a topic close to their hearts.

Dates

Sem 2: 1 July - 19
December 2025

Location

Whakatāne, Tāmaki,
Te Tai Tokerau

Duration

40 weeks per year,
20 weeks per semester

Fees

Tuition fees: $1698.00
(per paper or research project), $3400.00
(Dissertation),
$4131.00 (Thesis)

Career Opportunities

There are 8 research options within the two master's degrees, enabling students to study and research fields such as: Māori Studies, Environment, Māori Performing Arts, Business, Health, Creative Arts, Indigenous Studies and Education.

Scan to view the most up-to-date
information about this programme
on our website.